

ARTWORKS

The world's most famous artworks have become 'frequent travelers' during recent years, to serve famous museums, art fairs and galleries around the globe.

Such shipments can cover a whole range of different types of artworks, varying from small modern art oil paintings to huge bronze sculptures and extensive contemporary art installations.

Cargolux – Worldwide Expertise Plus Over 35 Years of Experience

Cargolux offers its clients a longstanding experience and has served the world's most reputable museums and cultural institutions over the years, ensuring quality delivery and on-time handover of artworks for build up and display, as well as correct return of same, which has led to satisfying relationships with worldwide art shipping companies.

The Advantages of Cargolux's home base Luxembourg

- Luxembourg is a non-congested home base for the company's worldwide operation.
- Direct and virtually traffic-free access to Europe's motorway network.
- From Luxembourg, Cargolux operates regular flights to over 60 worldwide destinations, and offers numerous additional interline destinations.
- Cargolux offers its customers the Luxair CargoCenter's flexibility to accept shipments even at short notice.
- At Luxair's CargoCenter, art shipments can be stored in any of the 10 double cells (20 x 10 ft pallets, or 10 x 20 ft pallets) from 0 up to 20 degrees and 10 double cells from 0 up to 30 degrees.

Worldclass.Worldwide

Cargolux is Europe's largest all-cargo airline, operating a fleet of 16 modern Boeing 747-400 freighters. Furthermore, Cargolux is the launch customer of the new B747-8 freighter, with 10 aircraft on order plus further 10 options.

The airline operates scheduled cargo flights to over 60 destinations worldwide. Split and full-charters are also available. An extensive trucking network provides road feeder services between Cargolux's hub in Luxembourg and all major European industrial centers.

Cargolux also offers third-party aircraft maintenance.

Cargolux is a dedicated user of an air cargo management system known as eCHAMP, Cargo Handling And Management Planning, the only fully integrated financial, operations, marketing and management cargo system in the airline industry today.

eCHAMP is developed and marketed by CHAMP Cargosystems S.A., a joint venture company owned by Cargolux Airlines Int SA and SITA Inc.

The Cargolux Advantage for the Transportation of Art Shipments

- The company's B747-400 freighters are ideally suited to accommodate even large pieces of artwork through its nose door.
- The temperature can be adapted to the requirements of artworks.
- Special ULDs are available for safe transportation on Cargolux's B747-400 freighters.
- Cargolux's worldwide flight network offers the required routes, on direct services.

Professional Packaging, Handling and Safe Transportation

The variety of artworks requires not only very special high-quality packaging, but also special handling during the entire transportation process. Skilled and well-trained staff for packaging and transportation of such high-value cargo is a must. Temperature controlled trucks with special suspension for the transportation of art shipments are selected, which are specially secured and sometimes even GPRS controlled.

It is vital that the safety of such fine cargo has to be ensured at all times, and Cargolux has adapted the following processes for all art shipments:

- Cargolux ensures safe handling on ground and in the air, by skilled and experienced staff.
- Cargolux respects specific loading requirements.
- Cargolux never mixes artworks with any cargo like dangerous goods, liquids, nor with any other critical freight.
- Cargolux stores and monitors art shipments in a lockable area where safety is guaranteed.
- Cargolux ensures that ready built ULD's containing artworks are loaded onto the aircraft without delay and under special supervision of a 'courier'.
- Cargolux complies with clients' special requests for their art shipments.
