

You have precious commodities

We handle them with care and expertise

Safe Handling on the ground and in the air

Versed in the art of air cargo, Cargolux is your privileged airfreight partner to ship all kinds of artworks across the globe.

As a longstanding partner of renowned galleries and cultural institutions, Cargolux does not only meet the highest security standards, it sets them!

The variety of artworks or high-precision machineries require, not only very special high-quality packaging, but also special handling during the entire transportation process!

over 50 years of experience in handling precious cargo

4 independently controlled temperature zones to ensure an appropriate environment for your temperature sensitive art shipment

Your benefits with CV precious

- Safe, reliable and discrete operations at every step of the way
- Temperature controlled and individualized loading supervision to protect your cargo from damage and theft
- Ready built ULD's artworks containers loaded onto the aircraft under the supervision of a 'courier'
- Temperature controlled, shock and tilt sensitive containers can be used to transport high-tech commodities (semi-conductor machinery or wafer steppers) in a safe and reliable way. Unusual loading requirements are discussed and mapped out with the customer and enforced throughout the transportation chain on the ground and in the air
- Strict separation of artworks from dangerous goods, liquids or any other critical freight
- Immediate off-loading of artworks after landing and direct transfer to secured cells wherever applicable
